

PROFILES OF MORALE

CONTENT

INTRODUCTION: About morale, its manifestations and criteria 7

1. Questions of the concept of morale
2. Values of morale, its manifestations and its principle
3. Classification of the concepts of positive manifestations of morale

PART I: Respect for Life 13

1. A positive relationship to life and human being
2. Admiration to the natural sources of life
3. Loss of respect for the natural values of life
4. The position of man in the animal kingdom
5. Praise of the human body
6. The formation of man as a social being
7. Arrangement of sexual and family life in millennial traditions of European civilization
8. Human birth, generation cycle and periods of life values preference
9. Violent acts against human life and health

PART II: Human dignity 45

1. Human psychics and its values
2. Human dignity and its dimensions
3. Questions of entitlements to dignified life towards society and the state
4. Losses of human dignity and their forms

PART III: Reciprocity 63

1. Sources and foundations of the awareness of the people's solidarity in their social and personal relationships
2. Reciprocity and its criteria
3. Losses of reciprocity

PART IV: Trustworthiness (or credibility) 85

1. Trust in interpersonal relationships
2. Trustworthiness and honor in reciprocal relationships
3. Standards of trustworthiness
4. Losses of trustworthiness

PART V: Freedom of decision - making 107

1. Freedom in civil society and the role of morale
2. Decision-making and its differences according to place and role in interpersonal relationships
3. Free and arbitrary decision-making according to relation to moral standards
4. Attacks against freedom of decision-making, their forms and oppression

PART VI: Justice and Righteousness 125

1. Justice as a category of law
2. Righteousness (or fairness or equity) as a moral category

SUMMARY:*A system of concepts of positive manifestations of morale 139

1. Core concepts and their mutual relationship
2. Systematism of morale and false moralization